CHOICES FOR LIFE FOSTER CARE, INC.'S NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY INCIDENT

November 13, 2026 – Choices for Life Foster Care, Inc. ("Choices for Life") is providing notice of a recent data security incident that may have affected personal and protected health information related to certain individuals. While Choices for Life is unaware of any actual or attempted identity fraud in relation to the incident, it is providing potentially affected individuals with information about the incident and steps individuals may take to help protect against the possible misuse of their information.

What Happened

On or about September 16, 2026, Choices for Life became aware of suspicious activity on its network. An investigation determined that Choices for Life was a victim of a ransomware attack. Upon learning of the activity, Choices for Life promptly commenced an investigation, with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists, to confirm the security of their systems and determine the nature and scope of the activity. The investigation into this event remains ongoing, including identifying specific individuals and information that may have been impacted. Once those individuals are identified, Choices for Life will promptly inform them and take supportive action.

What Information Was Affected

While the review of affected information is ongoing, and the types of information that may have been impacted has not yet been confirmed, they will vary by individual and may include: full name, address, Social Security number, date of birth, medical information, and health insurance information.

How Will Individuals Know If They Are Affected by This Incident?

Once individuals are identified, Choices for Life will mail notice letters to individuals whose protected health information was contained in the files at issue.

What You Can Do

As a precautionary measure, we encourage you to remain vigilant against potential incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. We also recommend you review the "Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information" section of this letter.

If you have questions, please call (405)605-8125, Monday through Friday, from 8:00AM to 5:00PM CST (excluding U.S. holidays) or send inquiries to cfldatabreach@cflfostercare.com.

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information

Monitoring Your Accounts

We recommend that you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies. Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

Credit Freeze

As an alternative to a credit fraud alert, you may also wish to place a freeze on your credit. If so, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
Equifax: Equifax Information Services LLC P.O. Box 740256 Atlanta, GA 30374 1-888-378-4329 www.equifax.com	Experian: Credit Fraud Center P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com	TransUnion: Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016 1-800-680-7289 www.transunion.com

You must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. The following information should be included when requesting a credit freeze:

1) Full name, with middle initial and any suffixes;

2) Social Security number;

3) Date of birth (month, day, and year);

4) Current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years;

5) Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;

6) Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency;

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General.

The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261.

The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
